Consumer Products

China Healthcare

We have three companies operating in the fast growing China Healthcare market. These companies are increasingly strong cash generators from the development, manufacture and marketing of both prescription and over-the-counter pharmaceuticals and health supplements.

Drug Research and Development

Through Hutchison MediPharma Limited, Chi-Med researches and develops botanical, semi-synthetic natural product drugs and small molecule drugs for the global market. We focus on the oncology and auto-immune therapeutic areas.

Consumer Products

Chi-Med is engaged in the development of a health oriented consumer products businesses. This includes several brands of botanical, natural, and organic food and personal care products in both the China and European markets.
